Biography

James Thomas Kimbrell (1846–1917)

James Thomas Kimbrell was born Jan. 1, 1846, in Madison County, Arkansas. He was the son of William Riley Kimbrell (1805–1847) and Mariah Farris (1810–1861). His family history traces back to Scotland, with ancestors who initially settled in Tennessee before moving to Arkansas.

During the American Civil War, Mr. Kimbrell served as a private soldier in Company A, 2nd Arkansas Cavalry Regiment, Confederate States Army. Following the war, he relocated to Texas, where he married Britannia Bess Kimbrell on May 14, 1868, in McLennan County, TX. To this union were born nine children, James Calvin Kimbrell (b. 1870), William Oscar Kimbrell (b. 1871), Thomas Benjamin "Tom" Kimbrell (b. 1875), Maggie May Kimbrell Rogers (b. 1880), Florence Josephine "Josie" Kimbrell Harris (b. 1882), Harvey Elbert "Ebb" Kimbrell (b. 1884), Beulah I. Kimbrell Smoot (b. 1889), Georgia B. Kimbrell Todd (b. 1890), and Evie Kimbrell Skaggs (b. 1891)

Later in his life, Kimbrell moved to Oklahoma, settling in the Wilson area of Carter County. He is noted for having opened the first cotton gin in Carter County, contributing to the local agricultural infrastructure.

James Thomas Kimbrell departed this life, Dec. 11, 1917, at the age of 71. He is buried in the Hewitt Cemetery in Wilson, Carter County, Oklahoma.

James Calvin Minnix

TDM65-00453 “•” Soldier “•” “Full Biography”

Biography

James Calvin “Jim” Minnix (1827–1915) was a pioneer citizen and a veteran of the Confederate States Army. Born in April 1827 in Rockcastle County, Kentucky, he was the son of Abner Minnix and Hannah Renfro Minnix. He grew up as one of nine children in his family.

Throughout his life, Minnix was married twice. He entered his first marriage with Mary Berskin in 1840, and the couple had nine children together. Following this, he married Nancy Mariah Chaudoin Vernon on August 17, 1890, in Muskogee, Oklahoma, with whom he had two additional children.

Beyond his family life, records identify him as a veteran who served with the 17th Texas Infantry during the Civil War. He eventually settled in the Chickasaw Nation of Indian Territory (now Oklahoma), where he lived until his passing in 1915 at the age of 87 or 88.

Andrew Jackson Davis

TDM65-00385 "•" Soldier "•" "Full Biography"

Biography

ANDREW J. DAVIS (1842-1911), Pvt. Co. A, 2nd MS Inf. Battalion, C.S.A.

Andrew J. Davis was born in Mississippi, September 15, 1842. He married Mrs. Susie Bridges, April 5, 1862, in Holmes County, Mississippi. To this union were born six children, Albert, Mary E., Fanny, Louis N., Elias T. and Henry W. Davis.

We find the family living in Cooke Co., TX, on the 1880 federal census. The family has relocated to Berwyn, I.T. (now Gene Autry, OK), by the date of the 1900 census taking.

Mr. Davis is said to have served in Co. A, 2nd MS Infantry Battalion, Confederate States Army, during the Confederate War for Independence. He signed the roll at the 1902 U.C.V. Reunion in Ardmore, naming said company and battalion on the roll bearing the heading, "Enrollment of Veterans: Members of the Lost Cause Who Still Respond to Roll Call." He also indicates that he served in the Confederate Army on the 1910 federal census.

Mr. Davis departed this life on June 9, 1911, at the age of 68 years, leaving a widow and many friends and family to mourn their loss. His remains were laid to rest at the Berwyn Cemetery, Gene Autry, Carter County, Oklahoma. Mrs. Davis later applied for the OK Confederate Widow's Pension, but was denied due to insufficient proof of service.

Rev. John Richard Deering

TDM65-00465 “•” Soldier “•” “Full Biography”

Biography

Rev. JOHN RICHARD DEERING (1842-1917), Lieut. Co. K, 12th MS Inf. Rgmt., C.S.A.

Dr. John Richard Deering was born in Lexington, Kentucky, to the union of Richard and Amanda Deering. The family later moved to Louisville, Kentucky, where Dr. Deering resided until he enlisted in the Confederate Army on July 25, 1861. He served throughout the conflict and was wounded in battle on April 3, 1862. He had been baptized into the fellowship of Christ, by Bishop Waugh in the Methodist Episcopal Church in Louisville in 1858.

Dr. Deering began his career as a minister on November 14, 1863. Over his long career, he held pastorates in numerous locations, including Nicholasville, Winchester, Millersburg, Newport, and Versailles, among others. In 1886, he became a presiding elder, a role he held for nineteen years while serving districts in Covington, Danville, Maysville, Shelbyville, and Lexington.

He departed this life in Washington D.C., only days after having attended the 1917 U.C.V. Reunion in that city. He was considered one of the most prominent members of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South. His death was described as unexpected by his relatives, as he had been enjoying participating in the reunion exercises with no trouble.

James Monroe Wardlow , Sr.

TDM65-00187 “•” Soldier “•” “Full Biography”

Biography

JAMES MONROE WARDLOW (1846-1891), Pvt. Co. G, 31st TN Inf. Rgmt., C.S.A.

James Monroe Wardlow Sr. was born on January 14, 1846, in McNairy County, Tennessee. He was the second of five children born to the union of Pinkney Wardlow (1820–1876) and Nicy Farris Wardlow (1822–1880). He grew to manhood in the home with his four siblings: William Carroll Wardlow Sr., Levi Kelly Wardlow, John R. Wardlow, and Sarah Margaret Wardlow Sheffield.

Records show that Mr. Wardlow enlisted a private, Co. G, 31st Tennessee Infantry Regiment, Confederate States Army, Feb. 18, 1862. Records further show that he was wounded at Murfreesboro, Dec. 31, 1862, and was later reported discharged on account of being underage.

After the war, Mr. Wardlow married Miss Josephine Farris (1850–1925), Sept. 7, 1866. To this union were born four children: Taylor A., Robert Weaver, James Morgan, and Rosa Alma.

The family eventually settled in Oklahoma, where Mr. Wardlow passed away on June 9, 1891, at the age of 45 years. His remains were laid to rest at the Grady Cemetery, Jefferson County, Oklahoma, U.S.A.

Mrs. Martha Matilda Magness

DXD-00083 “•” Widow “•” “Full Biography”

Biography

Martha Matilda Smothers Magness (1855–1934)

Martha Matilda Smothers Magness was born on November 22, 1855, in Marion County, Arkansas. She was the daughter of Austin Lee Smothers and Mary Elizabeth Henry Smothers.

Martha married James H. Magness (1845–1922), Nov., 1875, in Marion County, Arkansas. The couple continued to live in Arkansas before eventually relocating to Oklahoma in or about 1900-1901. Records indicate the union produced ten children, all born in Arkansas.

We find the couple living in Wright, Jefferson County, Oklahoma, on the 1910 federal census, with their sons, Oscar and Elmer, as well as a grandson living in the household. They were later recorded living in Earl, Jefferson County, in the 1920 and 1930 censuses.

Martha and James had several children, including:

Cordelia Francis "Cordie" Magness Fields (1875–1934)

Mandy Delia Magness Cantrell (1877–1957)

Milford Franklin Magness (1885–1955)

Mary Magness Smith (1886–unknown)

James Tillford Magness (1887–1968)

Oscar Sam Magness (1892–1973)

Elmer L. Magness (1897–1973)

Martha departed this life, June 10, 1934, at the age of 78, in Ringling, Jefferson County, Oklahoma. She is buried in the Ringling Memorial Cemetery.

Anderson Felix Ormsby

DXD-00090 “•” Soldier “•” “Full Biography”

Biography

Anderson Felix Ormsby was a native of the State of Alabama. He was born near Decatur, AL, June 30, 1836. His life was marked by both personal and national history. He was an early pioneer settler in what was then Pickens County, Chickasaw Nation, Indian Territory, having first settled at Waurika, I.T., in or about the year 1895.

Mr. Ormsby claimed to have been a veteran of the Confederate War for Independence. In 1861 he enlisted, a private soldier, in Co. C, 11th Missouri Cavalry Regiment, Confederate States Army. According to Mr. Ormsby's sworn testimony, this regiment was disbanded in 1863, and he did not re-enlist with any other outfit afterward.

Mr. Ormsby was twice-married, by which unions he fathered seven children: Mattie J. Ormsby Giger, G. William Ormsby, James C. Ormsby, Sadie L. Ormsby Wright, Virginia Elizabeth "Lizzie" Ormsby Hahn Aument, and Mary Belle Ormsby.

On July 5, 1915, Mr. Ormsby applied for the OK Confederate Veteran pension. His claim was later rejected upon further review, Oct. 7, 1915, based on insufficient proof of service.

During the sunset of his life, Mr. Ormsby made his home in Ringling, Jefferson County, Oklahoma. His soul departed this life on June 13, 1922, at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Charles Wright, following a battle with cancer. He was 85 years old, when death came. His remains were laid to rest at the Ringling Memorial Cemetery, near Ringling, Jefferson County, Oklahoma.

Biography

This is the space in which the bio information will appear on the soldier pages going forward. I'm not inclined to write a biography for Mr. Rozell at this very moment, but will say that he is one of my wife and childrens' Confederate ancestors up the Geurin branch of their family tree. As you can readily see, he died during the war.
